

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information please contact:

Phyllis Lacca: 609.344.2400 x204 cell 609.214.7870 / phyllis@masterpieceadvertising.com

Ben Morris: 609-344-2400 x202 / pr@masterpieceadvertising.com

***MEDIA ALERT*****
Atlantic City Labor Museum
Ribbon Cutting

WHO: Roy Foster, President Atlantic and Cape May Counties Central Labor Council
Richard Tolson, Chairman, Atlantic City Labor Museum Committee
Atlantic and Cape May Counties Central Labor Councilmembers
And Dignitaries

WHAT: THE ATLANTIC CITY LABOR MUSEUM RIBBON CUTTING. The new museum* will advance the public's understanding of the history and impact of organized labor. Additionally, as part of this event and the new museum's primary purpose, the Atlantic and Cape May Counties Central Labor Council will be highlighting the history and honoring many persons of organized labor who have contributed to the construction, maintenance, service, entertainment, protection, education, and healing of the city of Atlantic City.

WHERE: Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall
2301 Boardwalk
Atlantic City, NJ 08401

WHEN: Friday, September 3, 2021
4:00 – Remembrance at Workers Memorial
4:20- Comments by Guests
4:45- Ribbon Cutting
4:00 – 8:00pm Live Music and Refreshments at Kennedy Plaza following the ceremony
Rain or Shine
Parking: Boardwalk Hall Lower Level Parking Garage

Photo Opportunity & Interviews Available